Machu Picchu - City in the Sky

The mystery of the hidden Sun Temple

Satoshi Yagisawa, Composer

Commissioned for the Ensemble Liberte Wind Orchestra, Kawaguchi City, 30th Anniversary Concert

Composer's Notes

Explaining the significance of Machu Picchu begins with remembering the Incan empire at its zenith, and its tragic encounter with the Spanish conquistadors. The great 16th century empire that unified most of Andean South America had as its capital the golden city of Cuzco. Irresistible to Francisco Pizarro, while stripping the city of massive quantities of gold, in 1533 he also destroyed Cuzco's Sun Temple, shrine of the founding deity of the Incan civilization.

While that act symbolized the end of the empire, 378 years later an archeologist from Yale University, Hiram Bingham, rediscovered "Machu Picchu", a glorious mountaintop Incan city that had escaped the attention of the invaders. At the central high point of the city stands its most important shrine, the Intihuatana, or "hitching post of the sun", a column of stone rising from a block of granite the size of a grand piano, where a priest would "tie the sun to the stone" at winter solstice to insure its seasonal return. Finding the last remaining Sun Temple of a great city inspired the belief that perhaps the royal lineage stole away to this holy place during Pizarro's conquest.

After considering these remarkable ideas I wished to musically describe that magnificent citadel and trace some of the mysteries sealed in Machu Picchu's past. Three principal ideas dominate the piece: 1) the shimmering golden city of Cuzco set in the dramatic scenery of the Andes, 2) the destructiveness of violent invasion, and 3) the re-emergence of Incan glory as the City in the Sky again reached for the sun.

About Mr. Yagisawa

Satoshi Yagisawa was born in 1975 and graduated from Musashino Academia Musicae, where he completed his Master's Degree in Music. He studied composition with Kenjiro Urata, Hitoshi Tanaka, and Hidehiko Hagiwara, and trumpet with Kenji Sekine. His compositional genres include orchestral, chamber and choir music. Recently, his works describing nature and antiquity are very popular, such as "A Tone Poem for Wind Orchestra – And Then The Ocean Glows", "Soaring Over The Ridges – The Impression of The North Alps", "Moai – The Seven Giant Statues Gazing at The Sun" and "The West Symphony". He was performed at WASBE (Singapore) in 2005. Yagisawa is active as a contest adjudicator, guest conductor, performer, and author for music magazines such as "The Flute", The Clarinet", and "The Sax", and is a member of "Prosperous Future for Band into the 21st Century KYO-EN" composer's forum.
